Huntington Beach Allstate Agent Awarded for Volunteerism
$1,000 Grant Presented to the Coast City Ballet Corp

Huntington Beach, CA (Grassroots Newswire) April 7, 2010 - Allstate Exclusive Agent Sharon Nottoli received the Agency Hands in the Community award for her commitment to helping others in her area. With this award comes a $1,000 grant from The Allstate Foundation for the Coast City Ballet Corp where Nottoli volunteers.

"The very fabric of Allstate consists of people who care about their local community," said Hank Barge, Allstate field vice president in California. "The Agency Hands in the Community program is a powerful way for Allstate agents to get involved with their local nonprofits and partner with them in making their communities stronger and safer places."

Through the Agency Hands in the Community grant program, Allstate agents and personal financial representatives are recognized for outstanding commitment to community service with a $1,000 donation to the charitable organization where they volunteer. To qualify for the grant, agents and personal financial representatives must show evidence of volunteer work that has had a positive impact on the local community.

Allstate Insurance Company's California Region supports a network of agencies that serve households and businesses throughout the state. These businesses provide a large variety of insurance and financial products. Agents, personal financial representatives and employees of the California region have a long, proud history of supporting the communities where they live and do business through volunteerism and charitable contributions. The Allstate Foundation will give over $600,000 throughout California in 2010 in addition to another $100,000 through the Agency Hands in the Community grant program.

Nottoli's agency is located at 18632 Beach Blvd. #205 in Huntington Beach and can be reached at (714) 963-2418.
